Getting started

Welcome to the training materials for the CSUC HPC system.

This introductory section will teach you the basics of how to connect to our servers, some basic information on the system, how to contact us through our Service Desk, how to open a ticket and how to report an incidence.

We recommend you read through this hands-on before moving on to the hands-on exercises.

Previous
Next